Dear Nathan,

LSC Investigation regards potential financial irregularities at College of North East London

I refer to your letter of 13th October.

May I take this opportunity to thank you and your practice for the excellent service you provided in assisting us to thoroughly investigate the above case to a successful conclusion. I found it was a professional service delivered in a timely manner.

Whilst the Learning and Skills Council attempts to resource investigations from internal sources there are occasions when we need external support. I have therefore added your consultancy to the database of providers should the LSC need to tender for similar work in the future.

Yours Sincerely

Bob Browell
